

Notification concerning handling of personal information for the Use of G-Portal

Japan Aerospace Exploration Agency, National Research and Development Agency (“JAXA”), hereby notifies you that JAXA complies with applicable personal information protection regulations concerning personal information acquired in connection with G-Portal, and handles personal information as set forth below.

1. Purpose of use of personal information

JAXA will use the following personal information for the Use of G-Portal, which will be used only within JAXA.

2. Personal information acquired

The following personal information is acquired.

- a. Name
- b. Email Address
- c. Affiliation
- d. Department
- e. Country
- f. Location
- g. Purpose of Use

3. Source of acquisition of personal information / Effects of not providing of personal information / Provision and transfer of personal information

JAXA acquires personal information directly from the individual or indirectly from the organization to which the individual belongs.

Provision of the information stated in paragraph 2 above is required for the Use of G-Portal, and if the information is not provided, JAXA will not be able to i) Understand the status of data provision, ii) Respond to inquiries from Users, or iii) Conduct surveys and questionnaires and provide information to Users for the purpose of improving G-Portal (Notwithstanding the foregoing, information on Users residing in the European Economic Area (EEA) or the United Kingdom will only be used for the purposes in i) and ii) and not for those in iii)). Except as permitted by law, JAXA will not provide acquired personal information to any third parties or transfer it outside of Japan.

4. Management of personal information

JAXA will manage acquired personal information in an appropriate manner, store it only for the minimum period set according to the purpose of use and legal requirements, and take necessary measures to prevent any divulgence, loss or damage or the like with respect to personal information.

5. Legal rights concerning personal information

If the applicable legal requirements concerning your personal information are satisfied, you may exercise your rights with respect to disclosure, correction, discontinuance of use, erasure or discontinuance of provision of personal information to third parties.

6. Contact

If you have any questions, complaints, or other inquiries concerning JAXA's processing of personal information or this notification, please contact JAXA's personal information protection officer (Z-gportal-support@ml.jaxa.jp)